FIRST PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

ROOTED IN SCRIPTURE, UNITED IN CHRIST, REACHING OUT IN FAITH

307 Gates Ave SE, Huntsville Alabama

First Presbyterian Church

October 7, 2018

WELCOME

Welcome to all who are worshipping with us!
Children are always welcome in the sanctuary, but if you prefer, child care is available for children, birth through kindergarten, in the education building.
Please, as you enter this holy space and time, silence your cell phones.

Worship begins as the people gather and are called to worship God. Words of scripture are spoken or sung to proclaim who God is and what God has done. Christian worship joyfully ascribes all praise and honor, glory and power, to the triune God. In worship the people of God acknowledge God as present in the world and in their lives. As they respond to God's claim and redemptive action in Jesus Christ, believers are transformed and renewed. In worship the faithful offer themselves to God and are equipped to perform God's service in the world.

As we confess our sin together we turn away from all that keeps us from God and turn toward the life-giving gospel offered in Jesus Christ.

The Gloria Patri allows us to express our gratitude to God for the pardon given to us after our confession.

PRAYER FOR ILLUMINATION

FIRST LESSON

Psalm 24

The earth is the Lord's and all that is in it, the world, and those who live in it; for he has founded it on the seas, and established it on the rivers.

Who shall ascend the hill of the Lord? And who shall stand in his holy place?

Those who have clean hands and pure hearts, who do not lift up their souls to what is false, and do not swear deceitfully.

They will receive blessing from the Lord, and vindication from the God of their salvation.

Such is the company of those who seek him, who seek the face of the God of Jacob. Selah

Lift up your heads, O gates! and be lifted up, O ancient doors! that the King of glory may come in.

Who is the King of glory? The Lord, strong and mighty, the Lord, mighty in battle.

Lift up your heads, O gates! and be lifted up, O ancient doors! that the King of glory may come in.

Who is this King of glory? The Lord of hosts, he is the King of glory. Selah

One: This is the Word of the Lord.

Many: Thanks be to God.

ANTHEM

(8:30) Christians, Awake!

Yorkshire
arr. David Paxton

(10:30) Lift Up Your Heads
Chancel Choir

Allen Pote

*Lift up your heads, O ye mighty gates
and be ye lifted up ye everlasting doors,
and the King of glory shall come in.*

Who is the King of Glory?

The Lord of hosts, He is the King of glory.

Strong and mighty, He is the King.

Lift up your heads, O ye mighty gates.

For behold He comes, the Savior waits.

Blessed are they who come in the name of the Lord.

Hosannas we bring, that ancient song we sing to the Son of David.

The Lord of Hosts, He is the King!

All glory, laud and honor to thee, Redeemer King,

To whom the lips of children made sweet hosannas ring!

The people of the Hebrews with palms before Thee went.

Our praise and prayer and anthems before Thee we present.

Psalm 24 was written as a liturgy for those entering the temple sanctuary for worship.

Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus by the will of God, To the saints who are in Ephesus and are faithful in Christ Jesus: Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who has blessed us in Christ with every spiritual blessing in the heavenly places, just as he chose us in Christ before the foundation of the world to be holy and blameless before him in love. He destined us for adoption as his children through Jesus Christ, according to the good pleasure of his will, to the praise of his glorious grace that he freely bestowed on us in the Beloved. In him we have redemption through his blood, the forgiveness of our trespasses, according to the riches of his grace that he lavished on us. With all wisdom and insight he has made known to us the mystery of his will, according to his good pleasure that he set forth in Christ, as a plan for the fullness of time, to gather up all things in him, things in heaven and things on earth. In Christ we have also obtained an inheritance, having been destined according to the purpose of him who accomplishes all things according to his counsel and will, so that we, who were the first to set our hope on Christ, might live for the praise of his glory. In him you also, when you had heard the word of truth, the gospel of your salvation, and had believed in him, were marked with the seal of the promised Holy Spirit; this is the pledge of our inheritance toward redemption as God's own people, to the praise of his glory.

One: This is the Word of the Lord.

Many: Thanks be to God.

*PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING AND DEDICATION

THE SACRAMENT OF HOLY COMMUNION

INVITATION TO THE TABLE

THE GREAT THANKSGIVING

Leader: The Lord be with you.

People: And also with you!

Leader: Lift up your hearts.

People: We lift them up to the Lord.

Leader: Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People: It is right to give our thanks and praise.

Leader: We praise you, Lord God, for your history of salvation . . . we, too, glorify your name and lift our voices in joyful praise:

The minister presiding at the Lord's Table leads the people in the great prayer of thanksgiving. This prayer with its emphasis on thankful praise has been of central importance to this sacrament from very early centuries in Christian worship. Thanksgiving is so important to this sacrament that it has been given the name of Eucharist (from the New Testament Greek word eucharistia, meaning thanksgiving).

*Those who are able, please stand.

SANCTUS

Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might.
Heaven and earth are full of your glory.
Hosanna in the highest.
Blessed is the one who comes in the name of the Lord.
Hosanna in the highest.

Leader: We praise you for Jesus Christ, born of Mary . . .

WORDS OF INSTITUTION

Leader: As we remember Christ's baptism . . . we proclaim that mystery called faith:

People: Christ has died, Christ is risen, Christ will come again.

Leader: We praise you for your Spirit who guides us . . . And now, with the confidence of his children, let us pray as Jesus taught us:

THE LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory, forever. Amen.

SHARING THE BREAD AND CUP

Receive and eat the bread. Hold the cup and drink when all have been served.

PRAYER AFTER COMMUNION

All: Lord God, in deep gratitude for this time of worship, for this meal, and for this church, we give ourselves to you. Take us out to live as transformed people because we have shared the living bread and we cannot remain the same. Ask much of us, expect much from us, enable much through us, and encourage many through us. May we each live to your glory, now and forever more, amen.

SHARE GOD'S LOVE WITH THE WORLD

*HYMN 838 Standing on the Promises PROMISES

*CHARGE AND BENEDICTION

*POSTLUDE Tocatta on "Nicaea" Holy, Holy, Holy arr. Page Long

A charge is offered at the end of the service to remind us that we are to live as people who have been changed and transformed by the Word of God.

As our time of worship comes to an end, our time of service begins.
We invite you to use this bulletin throughout the week as a way to worship God in your everyday life.

Confirmation Classes

All 7th grade and older youth are invited to participate in Confirmation this year! Confirmation classes will run during the Sunday School hour from January through April this year.

Those interested in confirmation are currently choosing an adult mentor who will walk with them during this journey of faith, reading scripture and doing various projects together outside of class. Please pray for these young people and the adult mentors who are willing to devote the time and energy to guide and nurture their faith in this special way. Mentors will be honored with a luncheon with their confirmation partners on October 21.

Shhhh! ...we need secret prayer partners for each confirmand, to hold them in prayer throughout the process. It would be nice if the prayer partner occasionally wrote secret notes of encouragement, too! The identities of the prayer partners will be revealed on Confirmation Sunday, April 21.

If you are interested in being confirmed or being a secret prayer partner, or if you have any questions, please contact Kathy Gillmore at: dce@fpchsv.org.

Mission of the Month - October Presbyterian Home for Children

The Presbyterian Home for Children, located in Talladega, AL, was established in 1868, initially as an orphanage. For the last 150 years they have provided for children in need and their families in a variety of ways. The PHfC is a 501©3 governed by a Board of Trustees elected in part by the three Presbyteries of Alabama. First Presbyterian Huntsville has a long relationship with the PHfC having had members serve on the board, sending volunteers down to work at the Home, many youth work trips, financial assistance, and hosting children from the Home at Maranatha.

The PHfC has several ministries currently:

- Secure Dwellings provides transitional housing for homeless children and their female caregivers, while assisting those caregivers towards becoming self-sufficient.
- Transition to Adult Living helps young women ages 19-24 with housing and group and individualized training to transition to independent living.
- Moderate Residential Care provides residential care for children with special behavioral or educational needs.
- Hope Academy and Ascension Leadership Academy provides educational services.
- Family Bridges provides intensive in-home services for families in need.

On October 27 we will travel to Talladega to help with their fundraiser, The Children's Home Challenge. This is a bike ride fundraiser with routes from 5 to 100 miles. We will man one of the rest stops, handing out food, water, and encouragement to the bike riders. This is an intergenerational event. Children 6th grade and up may come without a parent. Younger children may still participate if a parent comes as well. Our children and youth will also be making posters ahead of time to decorate our rest stop.
