*CALL TO WORSHIP

One: O come, let us sing to the Lord;

Many: let us make a joyful noise to the rock of our salvation!

One: For the Lord is a great God;

Many: a great ruler over heaven and earth! Come! Let us worship God!

*OPENING PRAYER

*HYMN 14

For the Beauty of the Earth

DIX

PRAYER OF CONFESSION (unison)

Lord Jesus, Judge of the nations: We confess that we have not seen your face among our neighbors in need. We have not shared our food with the hungry; we have not offered clothes to the destitute or shelter to the homeless. We have not welcomed the stranger, nor have we visited prisoners. We have not paid attention to these, your sisters and brothers, and in our neglect we have failed to serve you. Lord, forgive us; open our eyes to recognize your beloved family, and give us the blessing of sincere repentance that we may know the joy of eternal life with you and all the saints in this world and in the world to come. Amen.

KYRIE

Lord, Have Mercy

Hal H. Hopson

FPC Bicentennial Commissioned Service Music
(printed inside the back cover of your hymnal)

Congregation: Lord, have mercy. Christ, have mercy. Lord, have mercy.

Cantor/Choir: Kyrie eleison. Christe eleison. Kyrie eleison.

Congregation: Lord, have mercy. Christ, have mercy. Lord, have mercy.

ASSURANCE OF PARDON

One: The Lord God, who is loving and merciful, forgives us and cleanses us from all wrongdoing. Friends, know that you are forgiven and be at peace.

Many: Thanks be to God! Amen.

*HYMN 581

Glory Be to the Father

GLORIA PATRI

Today we celebrate All Saints' Day. While we may give thanks for the lives of particular luminaries of ages past, the emphasis is on the ongoing sanctification of the whole people of God. Rather than putting saints on pedestals as holy people set apart in glory, we give glory to God for the ordinary, holy lives of the believers in this and every age. Today give thanks to members of the community of faith who have died in the past year. We also pray that we may be counted among the company of the faithful in God's eternal realm.

Having confessed our sin, we remember the promises of God's redemption, and the claims God has on all human life. The assurance of God's forgiving grace is declared in the name of Jesus Christ. We accept God's forgiveness, confident that in dying to sin, God raises us to new life.

Those who are able, please stand.

*THE PASSING OF THE PEACE (8:30)

One: The peace of the Lord be with you.

Many: And also with you.

PROCLAIM GOD'S WORD

At this time all children will be invited to come to the chancel steps. Afterwards, parents of children KINDERGARTEN AND YOUNGER may then walk them to the nursery for sign-in to the child care program. 1ST GRADE AND UP should remain in the sanctuary with their parents.

PRAYER FOR ILLUMINATION

FIRST LESSON

Ezekiel 34:11-22

For thus says the Lord God: I myself will search for my sheep, and will seek them out. As shepherds seek out their flocks when they are among their scattered sheep, so I will seek out my sheep. I will rescue them from all the places to which they have been scattered on a day of clouds and thick darkness. I will bring them out from the peoples and gather them from the countries, and will bring them into their own land; and I will feed them on the mountains of Israel, by the watercourses, and in all the inhabited parts of the land. I will feed them with good pasture, and the mountain heights of Israel shall be their pasture; there they shall lie down in good grazing land, and they shall feed on rich pasture on the mountains of Israel. I myself will be the shepherd of my sheep, and I will make them lie down, says the Lord God. I will seek the lost, and I will bring back the strayed, and I will bind up the injured, and I will strengthen the weak, but the fat and the strong I will destroy. I will feed them with justice.

As for you, my flock, thus says the Lord God: I shall judge between sheep and sheep, between rams and goats: Is it not enough for you to feed on the good pasture, but you must tread down with your feet the rest of your pasture? When you drink of clear water, must you foul the rest with your feet? And must my sheep eat what you have trodden with your feet, and drink what you have fouled with your feet? Therefore, thus says the Lord God to them: I myself will judge between the fat sheep and the lean sheep. Because you pushed with flank and shoulder, and butted at all the weak animals with your horns until you scattered them far and wide, I will save my flock, and they shall no longer be ravaged; and I will judge between sheep and sheep.

One: This is the Word of the Lord.

Many: Thanks be to God.

ANTHEM

(8:30) God Whose Giving Knows No Ending

Lloyd Larson

Stacy Owens, soprano - Patricia Hacker, mezzo-soprano

God, whose giving knows no ending from your rich and endless store:

Nature's wonder, Jesus' wisdom costly cross,

Grave's shattered door, gifted by you,

We turn to you, off'ring up ourselves in praise;

Thankful song shall rise forever,

Gracious donor of our days.

Skills and time are ours for pressing toward the goals of Christ, your Son:

All at peace in health and freedom, races joined, the church made one.

Now direct our daily labor, lest we strive for self alone;

Born with talents make us servants fit to answer at your throne.

Treasure, too, you have entrusted, gain through powers your grace conferred;

Ours to use for home and kindred, and to spread the Gospel Word.

Open wide our hands for sharing, as we heed Christ's ageless call,

Healing, teaching and reclaiming, serving you by loving all. Amen.

A prayer for illumination may be offered before the reading and proclaiming of the scripture. This prayer seeks the illumination of the Holy Spirit and calls upon God to make us receptive to the life-giving Word, which comes to us through the scripture.

(10:30) My Life Flows On
Cancel Choir

Robert Lowry

*My life flows on in endless song, above earth's lamentation.
I hear the clear, though far-off hymn that hails a new creation.*

*Refrain: No storm can shake my inmost calm while to that Rock I'm clinging.
Since Christ is Lord of heaven and earth,
how can I keep from singing?*

*Through all the tumult and the strife,
I hear that music ringing.
It finds an echo in my soul.
How can I keep from singing? (Refrain)*

*What though my joys and comforts die?
I know my Savior liveth.
What though the darkness gather round?
Songs in the night he giveth. (Refrain)*

*The peace of Christ makes fresh my heart,
a fountain ever springing!
All things are mine since I am his!
How can I keep from singing? (Refrain)*

SECOND LESSON

Matthew 25:31-46

“When the Son of Man comes in his glory, and all the angels with him, then he will sit on the throne of his glory. All the nations will be gathered before him, and he will separate people one from another as a shepherd separates the sheep from the goats, and he will put the sheep at his right hand and the goats at the left. Then the king will say to those at his right hand, ‘Come, you that are blessed by my Father, inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world; for I was hungry and you gave me food, I was thirsty and you gave me something to drink, I was a stranger and you welcomed me, I was naked and you gave me clothing, I was sick and you took care of me, I was in prison and you visited me.’ Then the righteous will answer him, ‘Lord, when was it that we saw you hungry and gave you food, or thirsty and gave you something to drink? And when was it that we saw you a stranger and welcomed you, or naked and gave you clothing? And when was it that we saw you sick or in prison and visited you?’ And the king will answer them, ‘Truly I tell you, just as you did it to one of the least of these who are members of my family, you did it to me.’ Then he will say to those at his left hand, ‘You that are accursed, depart from me into the eternal fire prepared for the devil and his angels; for I was hungry and you gave me no food, I was thirsty and you gave me nothing to drink, I was a stranger and you did not welcome me, naked and you did not give me clothing, sick and in prison and you did not visit me.’ Then they also will answer, ‘Lord, when was it that we saw you hungry or thirsty or a stranger or naked or sick or in prison, and did not take care of you?’ Then he will answer them, ‘Truly I tell you, just as you did not do it to one of the least of these, you did not do it to me.’ And these will go away into eternal punishment, but the righteous into eternal life.”

When the Bible has been read, its message is proclaimed in a sermon or other form of exposition of God's Word. The God who speaks in scripture speaks to us now. The God who acted in biblical history acts today. Through the Holy Spirit, Christ is present in the sermon, offering grace and calling for obedience. The proclamation of God's Word in scripture and sermon invites a response of faith. We respond in song, affirmation of faith, prayer, and offering.

One: This is the Word of the Lord.

Many: Thanks be to God.

RESPOND TO GOD'S WORD

NAMING OF THE SAINTS

Following the reading of each name, a bell will toll. After the pastor's prayer, the congregation will join in praying:

Almighty God, by your Holy Spirit you have made us one with your saints in heaven and on earth: Grant that in our earthly pilgrimage we may always be supported by this fellowship of love and prayer, and know ourselves to be surrounded by their witness to your power and mercy. We ask this for the sake of Jesus Christ, in whom all our intercessions are acceptable through the Spirit, and who lives and reigns forever and ever Amen.

THE LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory, forever. Amen.

SHARING THE BREAD AND CUP

Receive and eat the bread. Hold the cup and drink when all have been served.

PRAYER AFTER COMMUNION

All: Lord God, in deep gratitude for this time of worship, for this meal, and for this church, we give ourselves to you. Take us out to live as transformed people because we have shared the living bread and we cannot remain the same. Ask much of us, expect much from us, enable much through us, and encourage many through us. May we each live to your glory, now and forever more, amen.

Santa for Seniors
November MOTM

For our November Mission of the Month, FPC has the opportunity to partner with TARCOG-Area Agency on Aging to provide Christmas gifts for fifty low income, disabled, homebound seniors.

TARCOG provides assistance in the home for these seniors through the Medicaid Waiver program which allows them to remain in their homes rather than having to go into a nursing facility. Many of these clients have no family support or assistance from family members and the gifts they will receive from us are the only gifts they will get for Christmas.

During the month of November, there will be a Christmas tree in the fellowship hall. On this tree will be names and information about these individuals along with their Christmas wish list. Please take a name from the tree and record on the clipboard the number of the client you have selected.

Please WRAP the gifts, bag them altogether and return them to the fellowship hall BY SUNDAY, DECEMBER 2, 2018. We will transport these gifts to TARCOG and the case managers will deliver them to the seniors as they do their December monthly home visits.

If you have questions, please contact Marilyn McCorkle or Karen Madison.

Report on Mission of the Month for October Presbyterian Home for Children.

We had a great time helping out the Presbyterian Home for Children on Saturday, October 27! Sixteen church members ranging from 4th grade to, well let's just say "retired" travelled to Talladega to assist with the Children's Home Challenge. This is a bike ride event with routes from 5 to 100 miles with rest stops and water stops along the way. We manned a rest stop and water stop, handing out food, drink, and encouragement to the bikers who came from as far away as Missouri to participate. The weather was a little chilly and windy, but thankfully no rain! This was the Home's third year to host this event and it tripled in size from last year! They hope it will continue to grow and provide funding for their many programs. Thank you to all who participated!
